From Your President

Happy New Year to the members of MSU Downtown Coaches Club and the rest of Spartan Nation!

For 74 years our club has brought together some of the most ardent and generous supporters of Spartan Football. It is an honor and a privilege to serve as the club’s President for its 75th season as the Official Booster Club of Spartan Football. I look forward to working with the Board of Directors and members of our club throughout the year to continue advancing our mission of supporting Spartan Football.

Our club’s support of Spartan Football has been unwavering over the years and the 2019 season was no exception – highlighted by luncheon programs featuring several former Spartan Football players and MSU Athletics coaches and staff. In preparation for the 2020 season, we will build on last year’s successes by growing the club and providing opportunities for our members to connect with each other and the team. The Board’s top priority this year is to strengthen the club’s connection with the Spartan Football Program. We are already working on finding new ways to provide those meaningful interactions and I look forward to your continued suggestions and support in this endeavor.

As the football team is celebrating its Pinstripe Bowl victory that sent off the outgoing seniors on a winning note, it is already hard at work preparing for the coming season. We too should celebrate our club’s long and storied history and the legacy left by our former board members, as we get to work on the year ahead.

Thank you & Go Green!

Adam J. Stone, President of MSU Downtown Coaches Club

Spartan Football Awards Banquet Recap

The Michigan State football program held its 2019 awards banquet on Sunday afternoon before a crowd of more than 600 at the Kellogg Center on campus.

Fifth-year senior defensive end Kenny Willekes became the first defensive player in school history and just the seventh player at MSU to be named Most Valuable Player (Governor's Award recipient) by his teammates for a second time. The Governor's Award, which has been given out since 1931, is MSU's oldest football award. Willekes joins FB George Saimes (1961-62), RB Eric Allen (1970-71), RB Lorenzo White (1985, 1987), FB Scott Green (1994-95), QB Drew Stanton (2004, 2006) and RB Javon Ringer (2007-08) as the only Spartans to win the Governor's Award twice.

Michigan State Defeats Wake Forest in New Era Pinstripe Bowl, 27-21

Senior quarterback Brian Lewerke compiled 366 yards of total offense and was named the David C. Koch MVP as Michigan State beat Wake Forest, 27-21, in the New Era Pinstripe Bowl on Friday at Yankee Stadium.

The victory propelled the Spartans (7-6) to their 11th winning season in 13 years under head coach Mark Dantonio, who extended his school record with his sixth bowl victory, which also ranks tied for fourth in Big Ten history.

“Great football game,” said Dantonio. “I thought we played very well the second half. Came away with a shut-out in the second half from the defense...I thought our guys were relentless.”

“Just can’t say enough about our football team and our seniors, that they stayed together. When you win a football game at the end of the year, when you win a bowl game which so much goes into it from a preparation standpoint, it’s a good feeling, a very positive feeling.”

Lewerke was 26-of-37 passing for 320 yards and one touchdown in his final game wearing the Green and White and set MSU single-season (3,442 yards) and career (9,548 yards) total offense records during the contest. He completed passes to eight different receivers, including his favorite target of the day, junior Cody White, who had a game-high eight receptions for 97 yards. Sophomore Jalen Nailor had five catches for 60 yards, while redshirt freshman tight end Trenton Gillison had a career-high four receptions for 88 yards.

Redshirt freshman Elijah Collins led the Spartans on the ground with 96 yards on 21 carries, and Lewerke added 46 rushing yards. Overall, the Spartans racked up 497 yards of total offense.

Trailing 21-20 at halftime, Michigan State shut out Wake Forest (8-5) in the second half and held the Demon Deacons to 351 yards of total offense. Wake entered the game ranked 12th in the FBS in total offense, averaging 473.4 yards per game.

“Really, I think we got stronger as the game went,” said Dantonio. “When you look at it, they scored in their first series. Then they actually scored 21 points in the first half. As the game progressed, we got more confident, we got more I would say stronger, more confident. I think that was the difference. Our attitude and our confidence level just continued to just raise as we went.”

Defensively, senior All-American defensive end Kenny Willekes closed out his illustrious career with nine tackles, including 1.5 sacks and a forced fumble. Willekes, who was already the school’s record holder in tackles for loss entering the game, finishes his time in East Lansing with 51 TFLs and 26 sacks, which is third most in MSU history.

Sophomore linebacker Noah Harvey compiled a career-high 14 tackles, while Antjuan Simmons had nine stops and Tyriq Thompson had eight. Starting in his 42nd consecutive game, a Dantonio-era record for a position player, senior defensive tackle Raequan Williams had seven tackles.

After a back-and-forth first half, Michigan State scored the game’s only points in the second half to clinch the victory. Trailing 21-20, the Spartans opened the third quarter with a 10-play, 73-yard touchdown drive, finished off on a 10-yard pass from Lewerke to White to take a 27-21 lead, which proved to be the game-winning score.

The Spartans had a key fourth-down stop to open the fourth quarter and proceeded to drive down the field after getting the ball back, but Gillison fumbled at the Wake 6-yard line, giving possession back to the Demon Deacons at the 11:40 mark.

MSU again forced a Wake Forest punt after the turnover, and drove 80 yards on 11 plays in 4:44 to the WFU 10-yard line, but Matt Coghlin missed a 28-yard field goal with 3:03 left, giving the Demon Deacons one last chance to score. The Spartan defense came up big once again, however, forcing a turnover on downs after four plays, and ran out the clock to seal the victory.

Wake Forest, which entered the game ranked second in the ACC in scoring offense at nearly 33 points a game, scored a touchdown on the game's opening drive, as Jamie Newman found Kendall Hinton in the end zone on a 29-yard TD pass. Newman finished the game 12-of-27 passing for 175 yards but did throw for three TDs and rush for 87 yards.

MSU got on the board at the 2:44 mark in the first quarter on Coghlin's 23-yard field goal.

Following Coghlin's field goal, the Spartans took a 10-7 lead with 2:01 left in the first as Mike Panasiuk scored his first career touchdown on an interception return off a deflected pass; after Jacub Panasiuk tipped the ball at the line of scrimmage, the ball bounced off Harvey, and then Panasiuk picked off the pass and returned it 14 yards for the score.

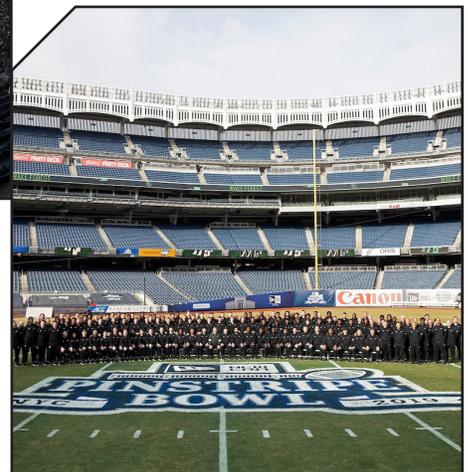

Wake regained the lead at the 9:14 mark in the second quarter on a 6-play, 36-yard scoring drive that was capped by a 16-yard pass from Newman to Donavon Greene. The TD drive was set up by Hinton's 36-yard punt return.

The Spartans bounced right back on the ensuing drive, scoring quickly in just three plays to take a 17-14 lead midway through the second quarter. On the second play of the drive, Lewerke found Gillison down the middle of the field for a 64-yard completion, and Lewerke ran for an 8-yard touchdown on the next play.

The back-and-forth affair continued on the next drive as Newman connected with tight end Jack Freudenthal on a 44-yard touchdown pass to make it 21-17 in favor of Wake with 6:02 left in the first half.

The Spartans trimmed the deficit to 21-20 with 49 seconds remaining in the first half as Coghlin hit a 44-yard field goal.

Michigan State opens the 2020 season on Sept. 5 against Northwestern in Spartan Stadium.

Football Signing Day 2020

Michigan State head coach Mark Dantonio introduced the program's early signing class during a press conference Wednesday inside the Spartan Stadium North End Zone media center.

The Spartans welcomed 19 new players to the program, including players from 10 different states and Canada. MSU signed six players from Ohio, three from Michigan, two from Georgia and one each from Illinois, Indiana, Minnesota, Pennsylvania, South Carolina, Texas and Virginia, along with one from Canada.

"These guys were all targeted early in the process for the most part," said Dantonio. "(They) have been committed for quite some time. One of the things I keep looking at, many of our guys are state champions...The players in this class, I feel like when you look at them, (they had) extremely productive senior seasons."

The class features several state champions and players of the year, including the Ohio Division 1 Co-Defensive Player of the Year (DE Jeff Pietrowski, St. Edward), the Ohio Division 2 Defensive Player of the Year (LB Devin Hightower, Archbishop Hoban) and the Ohio Division 3 Defensive Player of the Year and Ohio Mr. Football runner-up (CB Angelo Grose, Mansfield Senior High School). In addition, Kyle King (New Palestine High School) was named the Indiana Defensive Lineman of the Year.

2019 SPARTANS IN THE NFL

- Brian Allen - Los Angeles Rams (2018 fourth round, pick 111): Has appeared in 22 games for the Los Angeles Rams, with nine starts at center. Went to the Super Bowl in 2019 where the Rams were defeated by the New England Patriots, 13-3.
- Le'Veon Bell - New York Jets (2013 second round, pick 48): Bell completed his first season with the New York Jets in 2019 after spending his first six seasons with the Pittsburgh Steelers. For his career, Bell has rushed for over 6,100 yards and has 46 total touchdowns. Bell rushed for 789 yards and added three touchdowns for the Jets in 2019.
- Shilique Calhoun - New England Patriots (2016 third round, pick 75): The three-time First team All-Big Ten defensive end is in his fourth season in the NFL. Spent three seasons with the Oakland Raiders before signing with the New England Patriots in May, 2019.
- Garrett Celek - San Francisco 49ers (Undrafted free agent): Celek is in his eighth season as a member of the San Francisco 49ers. The 6-foot-5 tight end has 12 receiving touchdowns for his career with 82 receptions.
- Jack Conklin - Tennessee Titans (2016 first round, pick 8): Conklin is in his fourth season as the starting right tackle for the Tennessee Titans. Conklin started 16 games for Tennessee in each of his first two seasons and made nine starts in 2018. He is just the fifth Titans player since 1999 to start all 32 games for his team in their first two seasons. Jack was named a first-team all-pro following his rookie season. Conklin most recently appeared in the AFC Championship with Tennessee on Jan. 19, 2020 after starting in 16 games at right tackle for the Titans in the 2019 season.
- Kirk Cousins - Minnesota Vikings (2012 fourth round, pick 102): Cousins wrapped up his eighth season in the NFL with 26 touchdowns and 3,603 passing yards. Cousins ended the season with a 107.4 passer rating and led the Vikings to a 10-6 finish, including a 26-20 win over the New Orleans Saints in the NFC Wild Card game. Cousins signed a three-year $84 million contract with the Minnesota Vikings prior to the 2018 season to be their starting quarterback. Cousins has a career passer rating of 95.7 with 155 touchdowns and 24,107.
- Darqueze Dennard - Cincinnati Bengals (2014 first round, pick 24): Dennard just finished his sixth season with the Bengals, appearing in nine games at defensive back. Dennard combined for 37 tackles and five pass deflections this season. For his career, Dennard has 274 total tackles and three interceptions.
- Bennie Fowler - New York Giants (Undrafted free agent): Fowler spent last season with the New York Giants after competing for a spot on the Chicago Bears during training camp. He finished his first season in New York with 16 catches for 199 yards and one touchdown.
- William Gholston - Tampa Bay Buccaneers (2013 fourth round, pick 126): Gholston wrapped up his seventh with the Bucs in 2019, starting in a majority of their games in the 2019 season. Gholston finished the 2019 campaign with 26 tackles and one sack. In 2018, Gholston appeared in 16 games and made two starts. He combined for 10 total tackles and recorded a sack.
- Brian Hoyer - New England Patriots (Undrafted free agent): As a member of the New England Patriots, Hoyer won his first Super Bowl, a 13-3 win over fellow Spartan Brian Allen's Los Angeles Rams. Hoyer previously went to two Super Bowls with the Patriots, but lost both. Hoyer joined the Indianapolis Colts for the 2019 season where he appeared in four games.
- Domata Peko Sr. - Denver Broncos (2006 fourth round, pick 123): After 11 seasons as a member of the Bengals, Peko finished his second season with the Broncos in 2018. Peko finished year 14 in the league with the Baltimore Ravens, playing in seven games and adding 14 tackles for the Ravens in 2019.
- Drew Stanton - Cleveland Browns (2007 second round, pick 43): Now with the Browns after stints with the Detroit Lions, Indianapolis Colts and Arizona Cardinals. Owns an 11-6 record as a starter in his career.

- Trae Waynes - Minnesota Vikings (2015 first round, pick 11): In his third season as a full-time starter in Minnesota and his fifth season overall. Waynes had 44 tackles in 2018 after putting up a career-high 65 in 2017. The former Spartan has six career interceptions, including one in the 2019 season. Waynes finished with 56 total tackles in 2019.
- Justin Layne - Pittsburgh Steelers (2019 third round, pick 83): Layne appeared in 10 games and registered three tackles in his first season with the Steelers.
- Khari Willis - Indianapolis Colts (2019 fourth round, pick 109): Willis has made a name for himself early in his NFL career, appearing in 14 games and starting in nine for the Colts in 2019. Willis registered 71 total tackles on the season and has 53 solo tackles.
- Felton Davis III - Kansas City Chiefs (Undrafted) - Part of a Kansas City Chiefs squad who will take on the 49ers in Super Bowl 54 on Feb. 2, 2020.

Did You Know?

With the 31-10 triumph over Northwestern on Sept. 21, Mark Dantonio became Michigan State's all-time winningest coach in program history with 110 victories, surpassing the legendary Hall of Famer Duffy Daugherty.

But Dantonio has been the first person to say that the milestone would be nowhere in sight without the players who've gone through the program since he took it over in 2007.

"I've been blessed to be here," said Dantonio prior to the season. "I've been humbled to be here, and there's been a lot of great players here and a lot of great moments here.

A lot of different people have been involved in this process. I think it's a sense of accomplishment for a lot of people. A lot of people. It's not just one person."

Following his milestone victory, Dantonio again thanked everyone who helped him make history.

"You can't get there without players, can't get there without coaches," Dantonio said. "You can't get there without past players and current players. This is a very special group of players that we have, I really believe that.
